

INVITATION TO VENDORS

The National Native Addictions Partnership Foundation (NNAPF) in Partnership with the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) and the Native Mental Health Association of Canada (NMHAC) invites you to participate in the National Conference “Honouring Our Strengths 2014” A Conversation about First Nations Culture in Addressing Substance Use Issues and Promoting Wellness taking place at the Delta Ottawa City Centre in Ottawa, Ontario, on June 24-25, 2014. National Conference presentations and discussions will highlight real examples of how culture has been foundational to wellness within First Nations communities across the Country.

The National Conference is expected to bring together approximately 300 First Nations leaders, addictions and wellness experts, health technicians, health experts and medical professionals working in First Nations communities across Canada. For vendors, the National Conference will be a valuable networking and opportunity to showcase culture products and services to NNAPF delegates and guests.

If you are interested in securing a booth space at the National Conference, please complete the attached trade show vendor registration form and return to NNAPF by May 31, 2014. For more information on the trade show, please contact Raymond Deleary at 519-280-0085 or by email at rdeleary@nnapf-fanpld.org.

We look forward to your participation.
